

Society

All news for this department must be at The Republican office Thursday evening. All items must be signed.
SOCIETY EDITOR

Pro-Cathedral workers are meeting several times a week devising ways and means of securing funds for the beautiful church to be erected shortly. Incidentally these gatherings are taking the form of social events and as the committees will meet throughout the summer, there is every reason to believe that the season will continue as gay as it is at present.

The executive committee, Dwight B. Heard, chairman; Howard S. Reed, secretary; Barry Goldwater, Frank D. Lane and Dr. John Dennett, Jr., gave a luncheon at the Arizona club recently to discuss plans to forward a subscription campaign. Those who were asked to confer with them were Mrs. Joseph H. Kibbey, Mrs. C. F. Ainsworth, Mrs. Anell Martin, Mrs. E. J. Bennett, Miss Edith Evans, Judge Edward Kent, Judge Ernest Lewis, Dr. Anell Martin, Dr. Charles A. Van der Veer, W. A. Farish, U. A. Morford, Foster H. Rockwell, J. M. Ormsby, W. T. Twifield, J. K. Wheat and H. B. Wilkinson.

The Guild will hold a bazaar in November and the members are working assiduously on novelties for the event. Mrs. H. M. Fennimore gave a luncheon Wednesday to a coterie, her guests being Mrs. George Vickers, Mrs. Ralph Cameron, Mrs. R. J. McLane, Mrs. N. A. McGill, Mrs. H. D. McVay and Mrs. George O. Pierce. This week Mrs. Cameron will entertain the parish workers who not content with this one plan have conceived the idea of "Cheerful Givers' Albums" which have been circulated advantageously. Mrs. Vickers and Mrs. Howard S. Reed head this committee.

Judge and Mrs. Henry D. Ross of 1219 North Central avenue were hosts Thursday evening when they entertained with a luncheon in their usual charming manner. The card room were embellished with spring flowers, sweet peas predominating. There were present Judge and Mrs. Ernest W. Lewis, Judge and Mrs. Richard E. Sloan, Mr. and Mrs. Fen S. Hildreth, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Flint Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Collins, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kay, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Earl Nash, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gibbons Hulett, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Burris, Mr. and Mrs. James S. Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Goldsworthy, Mr. and Mrs. S. Norvett and Miss Kate Christy. In the afternoon Mrs. Ross presided over several tables of auction. The score cards were miniature fans and exquisitely dainty fans were the prizes. There were Mrs. Joseph H. Kibbey, Mrs. Isaac Taft Stoddard, Mrs. Clark Churchill, Mrs. Clay Leonard, Mrs. Daniel Francis, Mrs. Joseph Sherburne Jenches, Jr., Mrs. Sims Ely, Mrs. L. D. Dameron, Mrs. Gus Noll, Mrs. Ralph Cameron, Mrs. George H. Lutgerding, Mrs. Louis Dysett, Mrs. H. E. Campbell, Mrs. William E. Defty, Mrs. William Pinney, Mrs. Thomas Winston Peck, Mrs. Earl Curtis, Mrs. E. J. Elliot, Mrs. E. E. Pascoe, Mrs. Frederick Robbins, Mrs. R. W. Tafel, Mrs. A. L. Moore, Mrs. M. E. Morin, Mrs. J. Elliot Walker, Mrs. F. H. Ensign, Mrs. J. W. Phillips, Mrs. F. L. Brill, Mrs. C. C. Hurley, Mrs. J. B. Hocker, Mrs. Adolph Herzberg, Mrs. M. J. Sterus, Miss Fannie Peck and Miss Grace Peck.

Cards are out for the wedding of Miss Florence May Lewis and William Broad Burroughs which will take place Tuesday evening, June 2, at Hotel Fuller, Detroit. A brilliant reception will follow the ceremony. When plans were made earlier in the season it was the intention of Miss Lewis and Mr. Burroughs to pass and save those interesting scenes of your vacations. Send your films to us for the best work in finishing.

Miller-Sterling Co.
Where Quality Counts
42 N. Central

their honeymoon in Arizona but they have decided to postpone that pleasure until autumn.

Miss Lewis is the daughter of Mrs. Adelaide Lewis and is said to be a charming and clever young woman. Mr. Burroughs is well known in Phoenix having frequently visited his sister, Mrs. Evans Darby, on North Central avenue. He is exceedingly

Mrs. Paul Edwin Fuller, Mrs. Robert Wallace Craig, Mrs. Clayton Ingraham, Joe Casson, Alexander Baker, Robert Beardsley and Joe Casson.

Mrs. Julian Holmes of 511 East Colver, is one of the attractive young matrons of the smart set who will not leave town during the summer. Although Mrs. Holmes is practically a likeable and has a host of friends here. He is a prominent official of the Santa Fe and makes Detroit his headquarters.

Mrs. Julian Holmes

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Flint Nichols and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Lee were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Gatter Monday evening at their home on North Fifth avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Noll gave a jolly picnic supper and informal dance Wednesday evening at their North First avenue residence. The west garden where supper was served was most attractive. Added to its natural and cultivated charm was a wealth of cut flowers artistically arranged. Japanese lanterns were strung about with gay effects. There were present Mrs. H. C. Crandall, Miss Rena Dorris, Miss Kate Wilson, Miss Marion Dorris, Miss Katherine Kennan, Miss Harriet Hurley, Miss Gene Ripley, Ernest Bennett, Lindley Calhoun Morton, John Rinker Kibbey, Lester Byron, Irving de R. Miller, Frank Long and Dan Patch.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Johnson of East Willetta street, favorite members of the A. N. C. club, left Thursday for a summer absence to be passed in travel. They will visit New York, Washington, D. C., Baltimore and the fashionable resorts.

Fred Bixby of Los Angeles gave a smartly appointed dinner at a downtown cafe Tuesday evening, later taking his guests to the opening of the Columbia. Those who enjoyed Mr. Bixby's hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kingsbury, Mr. and Mrs. Colt Myers, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rowlands, Mrs. Robert Wallace Craig and Joe Casson. This was but one of the many theater parties for society was largely represented in the first night's audience. Louis Cates of Ray had as guests Judge Edward Kent, Louis H. Chalmers and F. C. Struckmeyer. Eugene Goldman entertained Mr. and Mrs. Joseph T. Melzer, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Goldman, Miss Zelman Goldberg, Miss Rose Bell Goldman and Sylvan Ganz. Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Renau Ingales, Mr. and Mrs. Royal Lescher and Robert Beardsley were in a party and another coterie comprised Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Tweed, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Seabury and Mr. and Mrs. William G. Hartranft. Mr. and Mrs. Sidney J. Ross and Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Peabody were also there as were practically all the smart set.

Mrs. H. E. Campbell presided over an exquisitely appointed luncheon Friday at her North Central avenue residence. A French wicker basket filled to the overflowing with various colored verbenas was the table's effective centerpiece. The guests included twelve Flagstaff friends of the hostess.

A swimming party at Joint Head was one of the enjoyable events of Monday. There were present Mr. and Mrs. Foster H. Rockwell, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Page, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rowlands, Mr. and Mrs. Colt Myers, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kingsbury, Mr. and newcomer in Phoenix, she has a wide acquaintance and is a favorite with all who know her. She is a popular member of the Country club, an excellent player and a beautiful and graceful dancer.

Mr. and Mrs. William S. Humbert of North First avenue gave an informal dinner Friday evening, their guests being Mr. and Mrs. William G. Hartranft, Mr. and Mrs. William Kennedy Humbert, William Hartranft and Winfield Hartranft.

The Belles club will meet Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. F. C. Hurst of Fifteenth avenue.

The Quen Sale club met Wednesday evening with Dr. and Mrs. Roy E. Thomas of 229 East Moreland street. Mrs. Joseph Sherburne Jenches made the highest auction score. The club members present were Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Cook, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Lutgerding, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sherburne Jenches, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Tuttle Haylett. The substitutes were Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Wayland, Mrs. Joseph H. Kibbey, Mrs. R. E. Sims and Walter Cherry.

Joint Head continues to be the favorite rendezvous for swimming parties. Among those who motored to this delightful spot Friday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Renu Ingales, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Dorris, Mrs. J. W. Dorris, Mrs. H. C. Crandall, Miss Rena Dorris, Miss Ruth Ainsworth, Miss Eleanor Sloan, Miss Kate Wilson, Miss Mabel Hocker, Miss Marion Dorris, Miss Harriet Hurley, Miss Selma Goldberg, Miss Gene Ripley, Miss Ruth Jessop, Miss Ellen Conway, Miss Katherine Kennan, Power Conway, John Rinker Kibbey, Ernest Bennett, Lindley Calhoun Norton, Lester Byron, Arthur Hallin, Irving de R. Miller, Roy Murray, Frank Long and Dan Patch.

One of the most pleasurable diversions of the week-end was the desert picnic supper last evening. There were present Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Burr Atha, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Tweed, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Seabury, Mr. and Mrs. Farnk Hilderbran, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney J. Ross, Miss Ruth Ainsworth, Miss Harriet Hurley, Miss Ruth Jessop, Hugh D. Marshall, Judge Edward Kent, Leon Tolleson, Ernest Bennett, Irving de R. Miller, James Dawson, Power Conway and Richard Reed.

Miss Katherine Kennan will entertain the Auction club Monday afternoon. Mrs. Sims Ely, Jr., was last week's hostess.

The first members of the Phoenix contingent who will summer in Flagstaff left for the north last evening. They were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Coulter, who will be joined shortly by Mr. and Mrs. George Alkire. Others who will open their cottages within a fortnight are Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Lockett, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Francis and Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Evans of Mesa.

Mrs. Sims Ely and Miss Elizabeth Crumby gave an attractive luncheon yesterday complimentary to Miss Marjorie Leavell, whose engagement to Roland Parsons was announced recently. It was one of the prettiest affairs given in honor of the popular bride-elect, and the Ely residence, 1404 North First street, was a perfect bower of blossoms for the occasion. Covers were laid for twelve.

Mrs. J. W. Dorris of Casa de Rosas will leave shortly for White Salmon, Washington, where she will pass the summer with her daughter, Mrs. Sidney Boddingshouse. Miss Rena Dorris and Miss Kate Wilson will be in town another month before leaving the latter part of June for the east.

Mrs. Howard Reed of 834 North First avenue left yesterday for Boston.

Miss Mary Leavell arrived Monday from Stanford university and after a fortnight in town will leave with her sister, Miss Marjorie Leavell, for Missouri, where they will pass the summer months.

Judge Joseph H. Kibbey will return tomorrow from a short stay in Bisbee and Douglas.

The marriage of Miss Emma Thalheimer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Thalheimer, to Jack Gannon, will take place Monday morning, June 1, at St. Mary's cathedral. Miss Elizabeth Tooley and Miss Hilke Steinegger will be the bridesmaids. Miss Regina Luke the flower girl, while Walter Thalheimer will act as best man and Frank Tooley and Victor Steinegger serve as ushers. An elaborate musical program is being arranged and will be given by Miss Anna Marie Luke, Miss Helen Huberta Boyle, Seraphina Regetti, Robert German and E. R. Jones. Immediately following the ceremony the young folk will leave for Detroit, and will not join the bridal party, who will be entertained at breakfast by Walter Thalheimer, brother of the bride. The Thalheimer family is numbered among the prominent pioneers of the state and it is their wish that any one desiring to see their daughter married be permitted to do so. There were few cards issued for the ceremony, which will take place at six o'clock.

Miss Irwin L. Fletcher of 846 North Second avenue entertained four tables of guests with auction Thursday afternoon, complimentary to Mrs. S. R. Rosenblad. The attractive prizes were won by Mrs. Louis Melzer, Mrs. Henry Landers and Mrs. Henry Greenbaum.

Mrs. Albino Brookway Letts, who passed the winter here, the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Frank McCrary, left Monday for a several months' absence, to be passed with relatives in the south and east. She will make her first stop in Clarendon, Texas, going later to her old home in Iowa, and conclude her travels in Boston. Mrs. Letts was greatly admired and much feted during her stay here, and her hosts of friends will be delighted to learn she will return in the autumn. While in Boston it is quite probable she will make arrangements for publishing her clever and interesting collection of stories of Arizona. A group of her poems recently appeared in The Republican and created much commendable criticism.

A picnic at Camelback was a pleasant event of yesterday enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Blair, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Fitzgerald, Miss Frances Elliott, Miss Patricia Davidson, Clinton Yates and H. L. Holmes.

The stay-at-home movement will gain an impetus this week with the opening of Riverside park. Surely Phoenix will not lack for amusement this summer and the park promises much in the way of pleasure. The Shrine Sokum Sirkus is an event of this week not to be ignored. Prominent men from all over Arizona will join in making the big sirkus the most thoroughly jolly, care-free and Bohemian affair of the year. The carnival spirit will prevail and all will unite to make it event.

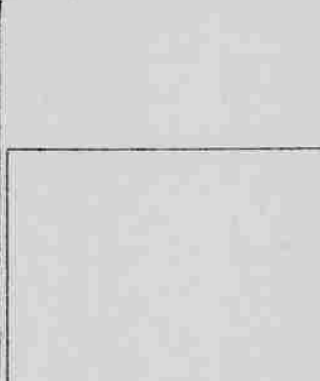

Mrs. Eva Butler was hostess of the Priscilla club Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Perry Downing and Mrs. A. L. Dorris assisted in receiving. Besides the club members there were present Mrs. O. E. Plath, Mrs. Clara Battin, Mrs. Thomas M. Smith, Mrs. A. B. Murphy, Mrs. H. J. Sistrunk, Mrs. L. W. Balch, Mrs. J. A. Jones, Mrs. Harvey Patton, Mrs. E. Shelby of Tucson and Miss M. J. Battin.

Mr. and Mrs. James S. Griffin of 1105 North Second street were hosts of the D. T. club Monday evening when Mrs. Edward O'Malley made the highest auction score. The substitutes were Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Van Lewen.

The juniors are eagerly anticipating Thursday evening when the Zesly Miamber club will give a dance at the Woman's club. Mr. and Mrs. David Goldberg will be the chaperones.

Mrs. Edwin Malcolm Hull entertained the Auction club Friday afternoon.

Secretary of State Sidney P. Osborn will return today from a several days' absence in Agua Caliente.

New Ideas for Old

If you can divest yourself of all your Clothes prejudices for fifteen minutes while you investigate our specially designed Ready Clothes for men, we will guarantee to give you a totally new set of preferences that will save you time, trouble and money for the rest of your life.

We have studied the Clothes proposition for a good many years. We became retailers of Good Ready Clothes because we know that the future belongs to ready merchandise in nearly every line.

The Custom Tailor is being gradually crowded out of the field by a more efficient product at a less price.

We are giving a Ready Clothes Service that you will consider adequate, no matter what you have been paying, no matter whose name is on your garments, no matter what your prejudices are.

You cannot lose anything by looking, come in tomorrow. We would be glad to demonstrate to you why our "Summer Comfort" Clothes are so popular.

Clothing, Shoes, Hats and Men's Furnishings.

McDougall & Cassou

The "New Way" Shop for Men—Young Men and Women who Shop for Men and greenery were combined in effective table decoration. Covers were arranged for Mrs. Chrisman, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Healy.

Mrs. Homer King and her son Ferrell King left Wednesday evening for Spokane where they will summer. The C. B. Kings plan to pass the coming three months in Southern California.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Parsons and Mrs. T. E. Irvine are passing the week-end at the Garden of Allah.

Mrs. J. H. Farnes who wintered here the guest of her cousin, Mrs. J. W. Crenshaw of 841 North First avenue will leave this evening for New York. She has made many friends during her several months residence here who will regret her departure.

Mrs. Clayton Ingraham who passed the winter and spring seasons at Ingleside will leave Tuesday for Chicago. She will return in the autumn.

Mrs. W. J. Kingsbury has returned from a brief absence passed in Los Angeles.

Early in June Mr. and Mrs. William M. Seabury will close their North Central avenue residence and leave for Portsmouth, N. H., where they will summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Perry De Mumd of 647 North Second avenue returned Wednesday from Los Angeles where they passed a fortnight. They will leave the latter part of June for Portland and Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stauffer and little Miss Dorothy Stauffer of North Central avenue left last evening for Uplands. Mrs. Stauffer and her little daughter will remain in California throughout the summer while Mr. Stauffer will go east for a few weeks returning to Phoenix the end of June.

Miss Kate Christy anticipates passing the summer in Bisbee where she will be the guest of Mrs. George Craig.

Mrs. A. R. Gatter of 826 North Fifth avenue will leave Monday for New York.

Vacation Footwear

Going Away

Back home on a visit, or to the Mountains or Seashore. The arrival of summer days is the signal for the annual exodus countryward, to the forest bordered hill and mountain lakes and the fascinating shores of the sea, every fashionable woman will want to take away a fresh wardrobe of smart Shoes for wear at the summering places where style in dress is quite as essential as it is at home.

Our showing of Children's Shoes is complete, Gun Metal, Patent and White Canvas and our Romper Last in Elk Skin for play.

And you men that stay at home, treat yourself to a pair of White Canvas or Nubuck Oxfords, or Tan Russian Calf, with Rubber or Leather Soles.

Your Every need in Vacation Footwear for every member of the family.

Harry A. Drachman Shoe Co.
20 W. Adams St. Phoenix, Arizona

SHOES AND HOSIERY, That's All